

The role of a Poultry Nutritionist has evolved significantly over the years Have you evolved too?

Agrivet School

Industry Orientation Program - Poultry Nutrition - Level 1

A feed formulator, a techno-commercial right-hand, a de-risking trustee, a growth strategist, a financial savior and an ADVISOR... are some of the key roles that an ENTERPRISE expects from a NexGen Nutritionist today. Unfortunately, there are hardly any professional platform or co-learning space where bright and young Nutritionists and Formulators can learn by working together in game-changing live projects. More than individual brilliance, it is the variety of perspectives that can hone you up for the future requirements of business enterprises. Agrivet School is organizing a first-of-a-kind program to address this unmet need to get you future-ready. Nutritionists, Consultants, Feed Formulators, Technical and Marketing Employees working in Poultry industry can make the best use of this program for their professional development and ensuring client delight.

Industry Orientation Program: Poultry Nutrition- Level 1 is conceptualized with power-packed content and star-studded speakers/faculties. To name a few, industry experts like Dr A Natarajan, Dr U C Patel, Dr Amir E Ghane, Dr Alessandro Mereu, Dr Sudipto Haldar and Dr Shivaji Dey will take you through a 360 degree view of the potential complexities that a Poultry Nutritionist is expected to manage today.
